FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mayor Lerner's election to the National League of Cities Board of Directors will give Pinecrest a voice on a national stage

Pinecrest, Fla. – Mayor Cindy Lerner was elected to the National League of Cities (NLC) Board of Directors and will play a key role in guiding the nation's largest and most representative membership and advocacy organization for municipal officials. Mayor Lerner was elected to a two-year term by NLC's membership at the group's annual business meeting at the Congress of Cities & Exposition in Austin, Texas on November 22, 2014.

In her role on the board, Mayor Lerner will meet throughout the year to guide NLC's strategic direction and set the organization's advocacy priorities and operational goals. Board members are selected by a 15-member nominating committee and are confirmed by a vote by NLC's membership.

"My role as the Chair of the NLC's Energy, Environment and Natural Resources Committee, and now as a member of the NLC Board of Directors, will provide an opportunity to voice the concerns of Pinecrest and South Florida at the national level on policy determination and to bring back best practices from cities throughout the country," said Mayor Lerner.

In November, NLC's membership voted to expand the Board of Directors to 60 members in order to be more inclusive and representative of the membership as a whole.

About National League of Cities

The National League of Cities (NLC) is dedicated to helping city leaders build better communities. NLC is a resource and advocate for 19,000 cities, towns and villages, representing more than 218 million Americans.
