FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nature Film Night to feature documentary about orphaned orangutans and elephants and interactive educational displays

Pinecrest, FL – Pinecrest Gardens invites you to Nature Film Night where visitors can enjoy the documentary Born to be Wild about orphaned orangutans and elephants, and take part in an interactive educational area before the movie.

The event is on Friday, January 29th at Pinecrest Gardens, 11000 Red Road. Gates open at 6:30 p.m. The exhibition is from 7:00 to 7:50 p.m. and the movie starts at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $5.

Hands-on exhibits include displays from Zoological Society of Florida/Zoo Miami, Maderas Rainforest Conservation, the Center for Great Apes, and Save the Chimps.

The Zoological Society of Florida/ Zoo Miami will display animal bio-facts along with wildlife activities. Maderas Rainforest Conservancy will offer a unique display and an opportunity to learn about habitat conservation for great apes. The Center for Great Apes will be bringing their youth conservation team, "The Ape Ambassadors" to connect youth with primates in an exceptional way. Save the Chimps will bring hands on activities, and are accepting donations for their Chimpanzees. Items on their wish list include peanut butter, jelly, nuts, sunflower seeds, dried fruit, rice, oats, pasta, small plastic toys, basketballs, hand sanitizer, paper towels and laundry detergent.
