FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Outdoor Art Scout Badge now offered exclusively at Pinecrest Gardens

Pinecrest, Fla. – Pinecrest Gardens is now the location for the exclusive Girl Scout Outdoor Art Badge. The first opportunity to earn the coveted badge will be on “Badge Day” this Saturday, October 15th at 10 a.m. in Pinecrest Gardens, 11000 Red Road. Badge Days will be offered for the Outdoor Art Badge on select Saturdays throughout the year.

Some 60 Girl Scouts from different age groups are expected to attend on Saturday where they explore Pinecrest Gardens, and use their findings as inspiration to create nature-themed art and earn their badge.

Brownie Outdoor Art Creator Badge

Brownies will walk outside and see colors, shapes and ideas for things they want to create. Girls will be given the opportunity to learn the role that art plays in nature through a nature detective walk and designing botanical themed art.

Junior Outdoor Art Explorer Badge

Juniors will explore how nature and art can work together to create art and music. They will play with light, build bird houses, and make rainy day music.

Cadets Outdoor Art Apprentice Badge

Cadets will observe and collect items from the outdoors that will inspire their curiosity for nature-themed art. Girls will learn about the science behind art, discover the relationship between art and the weather, and create a nature playlist.

Admission is $12 per scout which includes cost of badge, activity materials, full access to garden amenities.
